Salon K Privé:

A Unique Experience

EXHIBITION

As of November 14th, the city of Berlin will experience a new world of performing arts & entertainment. Deriving from a private salon, so far only accessible to select visitors and run by international famed dancer & choreographer Patrick King, six exclusive shows by Salon K Privé featuring dance, songs, poetry, alongside champagne & dinner, will now be staged in a luxurious venue in Berlin-Mitte. Open to the public, though with limited seating in an intimate setting.

Salon K Privé — Satisfy your senses

Inspired by the freedom and elegant decadence of Berlin in the 1920s and '30s, Salon K was founded in 2010, aiming at bringing a new version + vision of performance, dining, social interaction, and well-being to life. Uniting an array of performing arts disciplines and incorporating various artistic languages including dance, acrobatics, music, and musical theater, the team around Patrick King and his partner Johan King Silverhult offer both a unique experience and an event that visitors can participate in by living it together with artists as well as like-minded guests.

Each exclusive Salon K Privé show lasts around 3 hours, allowing guests to free their senses from everyday stress, delve into the unlimited space of their mind, and enjoy the sensuality of their body. With artists from prominent institutions such as the Paris Opera, Cirque du Soleil, and Stuttgart Ballet, the highest artistic and technical qualities from the major stages are brought into the intimate format (max. 50 guests) of Salon K.

Salon K Privé — the makers & shakers

Patrick King, Creative Director: King's career as a choreographer, director, and performer spans several decades and has covered a large part of the globe. Born in the British West Indies, his artistic journey has taken him to Cirque du Soleil, various theater and opera houses around Europe, the Venice Biennale, the show "Qi" at Friedrichstadtpalast Berlin, the Valentino Haute Couture show, and several pieces for the Norwegian National Opera & Ballet.

Johan King Silverhult, Managing Director: After studying at the Royal Swedish Ballet School in Stockholm, Silverhult established himself as a dancer, performing the works of many of the most influential choreographers of our time, among them M. Béjart, W. Forsythe, J. Kilian, and C. Carlson. He also performed at the Venice Dance Biennale, the "2 Men" duo act during Cirque du Soleil, alongside events for Moët & Chandon, Kérasaste, and the Life Ball in Vienna. In Berlin, his collaboration with Patrick King continues with Salon K.
